Triodos Global Equities Impact Fund aims to generate positive impact and competitive returns from a concentrated portfolio of equities issued by large-cap companies offering sustainable solutions.

We select companies for their contribution to our seven sustainable transition themes. Through integrated financial and sustainability analysis we identify the drivers of a company's long-term value creation and assess the impact of ESG materiality on these drivers. Additionally, the companies we invest in must comply with the Triodos strict minimum standards. This product is not without risks. Please see the prospectus and the KID for more detail.

Highlights

- Triodos Global Equities Impact Fund generated a return (after costs) of 2.53%, while the benchmark yielded 3.20%.
- The rally that started in the last months of 2023, continued in January. The recent run was ignited by the pivot of central bankers. Again, large caps and technology related sectors drove equity markets higher. Main indices like the S&P 500 and the MSCI World set an all-time high. A still bleak macro-economic picture in Europe and a slightly weakening earnings momentum were not a concern. The MSCI World Index (EUR) ended the month 3,2% higher.
- The fund got off to a good start of the year. Important drivers of the performance last month were some of our holdings in Information Technology. Shares of Nvidia, one of the largest positions in the Fund, gained 26%. Our Japanese holdings like Sekisui House and Toyota were also among the winners. After a rebound at the end of last year, companies related to the Renewable Resources theme unfortunately again were underperforming.
